Chris realizes that estate planning is the easiest thing in the world to put off, and that's why he's committed to making the process comfortable, easy, and accessible. Whether it's making sure the right people are in charge of caring for your children, drafting trusts for special needs beneficiaries, engaging in complex estate tax planning, or crafting documents to account for any number of unique circumstances, Chris has worked with thousands of Maryland individuals and families to put together the right plan for them.

Chris focuses his practice on estate planning to help his clients prepare for the unexpected, and estate administration, to help make sure a loved one's wishes are carried out. Prior to joining the firm, Chris spent six years at a boutique estates and trusts firm in Baltimore County.
